2.0 EXPERIENCE

I am a designer who began coding HTML before there were WYSIWYG editors available. Since then, I have continued to work with every available tool, such as Flash, for website and multimedia production. I am capable of creating websites from start to finish, including designs, wireframes, HTML coding, image optimization, Flash, Flash video, SQL database building and writing scripts that add dynamic features to websites. I also have experience coding and optimizing HTML email for cross-client compatibility.
